BEGINNING TOGETHER Institute for Inclusion Facilitators

December 9 (8am start) through December 11 (5pm end)
2019 ~ San Diego, California

Become an Inclusion Facilitator!

On December 9-11, BEGINNING TOGETHER will hold its third Inclusion Facilitator training. This Institute is for those who train infant/toddler or preschool program staff (teachers, assistants) on the benefits and basics of inclusive practice.

This Institute is designed to support teams of facilitators and trainers with expertise and experience supporting inclusive practice from counties or regions. In this Training for Trainers Institute, participants will receive tools and resources they can use to increase teacher's confidence and competence in inclusive practice for ALL young children.

The Institute will also include a framework for guiding communities to move forward with a solid plan for increasing inclusive options for young children.

Participants in the Institute will have the opportunity to earn an Inclusion Facilitator Certificate after attending the Institute and providing training and/or facilitation in their community.

The California Department of Education, Early Learning and Care Division will be issuing the certificates in collaboration with BEGINNING TOGETHER.

This Institute meets the criteria for Quality Counts California Certification Grant funding.
